

VIET PHAN

Curriculum Vitae

Department of Sociology, Boston College

phanvc@bc.edu | +1 (617) 893-1912

AREAS OF INTEREST

Environmental sociology, climate change, decarbonization, economic sociology, sociology of finance, organizations

EDUCATION

- 2027 (exp.) Boston College, United States
PhD in Sociology
Dissertation: “Financialization and Climate Change”
Committee: Juliet Schor, Sarah Babb, Xiaorui Huang
Area exams: Economic sociology (2024), environmental sociology (2025)
- 2023 MA in Sociology
Thesis: “Disorganized Hypocrisy: Climate-Related Financial Disclosure and Net-Zero Commitments Among Financial Corporations in Singapore”
Committee: Sarah Babb, Brian Gareau
- 2016 York University, Canada
MA in Sociology
Major Research Paper: “Immigration Through Education: Immigration Considerations of International Students in Higher Education”
Committee: Carl James, Karen Robson
- 2015 Singapore Management University, Singapore
BA in Sociology & Economics

PEER-REVIEWED PUBLICATIONS

- 2025 Phan, Viet. “Financialization and Unintended Emissions Reductions: Evidence from the OECD, 1995-2020.” Social Forces. Online first: doi:10.1093/sf/soaf220.
Co-winner of Severyn Bruyn Award for Best Single-Authored Paper, Department of Sociology, Boston College
- 2025 Phan, Viet, and Sarah Babb. “Ritualism and Beyond: Corporate Response to Environmental Disclosure Regimes.” Environmental Sociology. Online first: doi:10.1080/23251042.2025.2552496.

RESEARCH IN PROGRESS

* Denotes equal authorship

- Under review: Babb, Sarah, Viet Phan, Fengrui Tian, and Ruilin Chen. “Good Faith Actors or Internal Controllers? A Study of American Compliance Jobs.” Revision underway for resubmission at Sociological Forum.

Bargain-Darrigues, Gaelle, Guolin Guo, Hassan El-Tinay, Viet Phan*, and Juliet Schor. “Growing Green? The Political Economy of Climate Transitions in China, the United States, France and Singapore.” Under review at Socio-Economic Review.

Phan, Viet. “Is There a ‘Green Cost’ to Equity? The Varying Decarbonizing Effects of Renewable Energy Across Different Inequality and National Income Levels.” Submitted to Social Science Research.

Manuscripts in progress: Phan, Viet. “Ecological Modernization in a Time of Financialization: The Impact of Corporate Debt on Environmental Policy Effectiveness.” Preparation underway for submission to Social Forces.

Huang, Janna Z. and Viet Phan*. “Nature Assessment in Practice: Evidence from Early Corporate Adopters of TNFD.” Data analysis and writing underway.

Phan, Viet and Xiaorui Huang. “Financialization of the Household and Consumption-based Emissions.” Data analysis underway.

Phan, Viet and Annika Rieger. “Do Financial Corporations Care about Climate Change? A Textual Analysis of Earnings Calls.” Data collection and analysis underway.

FELLOWSHIPS & AWARDS

2026	Dissertation Research Fellowship, Boston College (USD 38,800)
2026	Donald White Award for Teaching Excellence, Boston College
2025	Severyn Bruyn Award for Best Single Authored Paper, Department of Sociology, Boston College (Co-Winner)
2022	Ivan Brown Graduate Research Grant, Boston College (USD 2,500)
2022	Summer Research Fellowship, Boston College (USD 6,500)

TEACHING EXPERIENCE

2024-25	Instructor, Department of Sociology, Boston College Introduction to Sociology [Fall 2024, Spring 2025] Introduction to Economic Sociology [Fall 2025]
2021-23	Teaching Assistant, Department of Sociology, Boston College Research Methods in Social Sciences Introduction to Latin America Society Sociological Theory Crime and Social Deviance

PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE

2017-21	Senior Research Analyst, Marsh McLennan, Singapore Writing, research, and project management for reports on political and climate risks for industrial clients Consulting, digitization project for a major Vietnamese securities firm
---------	--

CONFERENCE PRESENTATIONS

- 2025 Society for the Advancement of Socioeconomics, Montreal, Canada
Panel presentation: “Financialization and Emissions: Evidence from OECD countries 1995-2020.”
- 2025 American Sociological Association, Chicago, United States
Panel presentation: “Ritualism and beyond: Corporate Response to Environmental Disclosure Regimes.”
- 2023 Society for the Advancement of Socioeconomics, Rio de Janeiro, Brazil
Panel presentation: “Disorganized hypocrisy: Climate-related Financial Disclosure and Net-zero Commitments among Financial Corporations.”

PROFESSIONAL SERVICE AND MEMBERSHIP

- Reviewer for: Social Forces
- Membership: American Sociological Association (ASA), Environmental Sociology Section
Society for the Advancement of Socioeconomics (SASE), Network S: Environment and Climate Change

LANGUAGE, RESEARCH METHODS, AND SOFTWARE

- Methods: Longitudinal Analysis, Multi-level Analysis, Computational Analysis, Interviews
- Language: Vietnamese (native), English (proficient), French (basic)
- Software: Stata, NVivo, Python [pandas, spacy, BERTopic]

REFERENCES

- Prof. Sarah Babb: sarah.babb@bc.edu
Prof. Juliet Schor: juliet.schor@bc.edu
Prof. Xiaorui Huang: huangxl@bc.edu